About this space

Cafeteria—Middle & High School

When your school's cafeteria is equipped with wide tables and ample seating, students are sure to enjoy their meals periods. Tables that seat multiple students allow children to socialize with peers as they eat, and a variety of seating options ensure they stay comfortable. Mobile or folding tables allow them to be moved aside for cleaning and make storage easy.

Requirements for a Great Cafeteria

For students, a great cafeteria should include spacious tabletops that give students enough room to eat as well as spread out books or project materials, or work on devices. Seating should be comfortable enough to accommodate long periods of use.

For teachers, the cafeteria should feature tables and seating that can be used for presentations or group work as well as meals.

For administrators, the cafeteria should be comprised of furnishings selected with the needs of their school in mind. Delivery must be on time and installation should be quick and efficient.

Cafeteria Solutions from School Outfitters

School Outfitters' research and development team designed a cafeteria space that caters to the needs of students and teachers alike. We've selected furnishings that work well for both socialization and mealtime and well as collaborative work or assemblies. The open dining area, group table seating area and the informal gathering area make a creating a great cafeteria simple.

Open dining areas accommodate large groups for lunchtime or a presentation. This area includes:

- Cafeteria Tables
- Cafeteria Stools

Cafeteria tables accommodate larger groups of students for meals, snacks or collaborative work. Long surfaces are quick to clean and easy for custodians to fold and move.

Cafeteria stools let students easily approach the table while carrying trays, books or other items. The smooth surfaces wipe up easily.

Group seating areas allow individuals or smaller groups of students to enjoy a meal or snack while working on a project or simply socializing. This area includes:

- Round tables

- School Chairs

Round tables seat several students for small group gatherings. The spacious table top accommodates everything from meals and snacks to socializing, studying or collaborative work.

School chairs keep students comfortable as they socialize or work on projects. Handles at the seat back allow students to easily reconfigure these lightweight chairs to accommodate the needs of the group.
